

The Home Straight

You've come really far,
but there's still hard work to come.

You may be feeling tired,
but the finish is within reach.

Stay focused. Pace yourself.

You have prepared for this, and you have a team of people behind you.

Final Snapshot Report

- Published on Go4Schools on 27th March.
- Included Attributes, Estimated Grades, Revision Status and a Revision Comment

Subject	MTG	Current	Estimated	Quality of home learning	Behaviour for learning and participation	Quality of classwork	Quality of organisation	Revision Status
Dance	6	4 -	4 +	Good	Good	Good	Good	Targeted
Revision Comment Attend GCSE drop-in on a Wednesday or Friday lunch. Support for written work can be given during this time. Continue to revise the anthology works which are available on Satchel:One. Short revisions sessions where a mind-map/lists are revised about the different components is often the most effective revision. Spend time revising the AQA glossary and knowledge organiser. Students will also benefit from watching a range of choreography works in different genres on YouTube. This activity will develop the student's vocabulary within choreography work. Mrs H Frost
English Language	7 -	6 +	6 +	Good	Outstanding	Outstanding	Good	Independent
Revision Comment will be encouraged to read through feedback and class notes from all learning this half term and action any areas of improvement suggested and targets given from the mocks and recent assessments in English Language. Mrs E Merry

The next 2 weeks after Easter...

- Two 'normal' weeks before the first exam (Drama).
- The curriculum continues.
- Intervention is ongoing, based on your final report.

+ 3 weeks

- Most subjects have their first exam before the half-term break.
- Your lesson timetable continues through these weeks.
- Lessons are well-placed to support your exam preparation.
