Parents/Carers will receive an email from attendance@lintonvc.org or contact from the relevant Head of House advising whether the absence has been authorised by the College.

Please note that even if this absence request is authorised you may still receive letters of concern from either the college or local authority if your child's attendance drops below a level that the college deems acceptable.

NOTES TO PARENTS/CARERS: The law does not grant parents/carers an automatic right to take their children out of school during term time. If the request is for an absence in term time, you must have Parental Responsibility and be the parent/carer with whom the child normally lives. Please note that a signature from both parents/carers is required for the college to grant an authorised absence.

AVOIDABLE ABSENCE IN TERM-TIME

IMPORTANT: Please read carefully the information below.

Permission must be sought in advance. If the circumstances relating to this request are considered exceptional and the absence is authorised by the college, the authorising of the absence will be conditional on the satisfactory attendance of the child(ren) up to the date covered by this request. Most will be unauthorised; a fixed penalty for absence may be issued.

WARNING: If you allow your child to miss college in term time for an avoidable reason without obtaining the prior approval of the college, you may be issued with a Penalty Notice* per parent per child or made the subject of court proceedings that could result in a fine of up to £2,500 and/or a term of imprisonment of up to 3 months.

As a parent/carer, you can demonstrate your commitment to your child's education by not allowing your child to miss college for anything other than an exceptional and unavoidable reason.

THE FACTS	THE LAW
School-aged pupils in Cambridgeshire are expected to attend punctually on the 190 days that the school is open. Whilst there are several unavoidable reasons why a pupil might be away from school (illness, medical appointments, exclusions etc.), the legislation is clear that any avoidable absence may only be authorised by a school if there are exceptional circumstances. WHAT YOU SHOULD CONSIDER Research suggests that children who are taken out of school may never catch up on the learning they have missed. This may affect test results and can be particularly harmful if the child is studying for final-year examinations. Children who struggle with English or Mathematics may also find it even harder to cope when they return to school, while younger children may find it difficult to renew friendships with their classmates. If the school is unable to authorise the absence and the child is still taken out of school for 6 consecutive sessions (3 days) or more or is classed as persistently absent, this will be recorded as unauthorised absence and you may receive a £60* fine per parent for each child.	The law allows schools to consider individual requests to authorise a future avoidable absence. However, before the school can authorise any such requests, they must satisfy themselves that there are exceptional circumstances which justify such a decision. It is entirely the responsibility of the parent submitting the request to provide sufficient information/evidence to establish this fact. The request for leave must come from a parent with whom the child normally resides. If a child, then stays away from school for more than the authorised period, this must be recorded as unauthorised absence and could be quoted in a prosecution for poor attendance. If the child is away from school for a total of 10 school days without explanation, the school will refer to the Local Authority and report the absence as a child missing in education. The school may be advised to remove a child from roll following extended absence, subject to advice from the Local Authority. If a child is removed from the roll, there is no guarantee that the child will regain a place at the school.

The law requires parents to ensure their children receive an efficient full-time education, and every minute of every day is important. Please help them not to miss any of this valuable time.

We hope that when you have read this leaflet you will consider that your child's education is too important to allow them to miss school for avoidable reasons.
